Pre-Departure Information

Airport Pickup Information for All Delegation

Dear Participants,

Welcome to Taiwan! Below are the details regarding your airport pickup upon arrival at Taoyuan International Airport on March 8th:

- Meeting Point:

After collecting your luggage and passing through custom gate, you will find a staff member in the arrival hall holding a sign that reads: "Indo Taiwan Collaborative Workforce Development Program 2026"

- Gathering & Luggage Collection:

Please ensure that all 25 participants have gathered along with their luggage before proceeding.

- Transfer to the Bus:

Once everyone is ready, follow the staff member holding the sign to the designated bus parking area.

- Transportation to Hsinchu Hotel:

The bus will depart from the airport and take you to your hotel in Hsinchu for check-in.

Taiwan Power Plug Information

Taiwan Power Plug Information

In Taiwan, the standard power plug type is Type A (two flat parallel pins), which is the same as in the United States and Japan. Some buildings may also use Type B plugs (two flat parallel pins with a round grounding pin).

Voltage: 110 volts

Frequency: 60 Hz

If your device uses a different plug type, you will need a plug adapter.

If your device is not compatible with 110V, you will also need a voltage converter.

Please check the label on your device before use to ensure it supports 100–240V for safe operation.

Type A

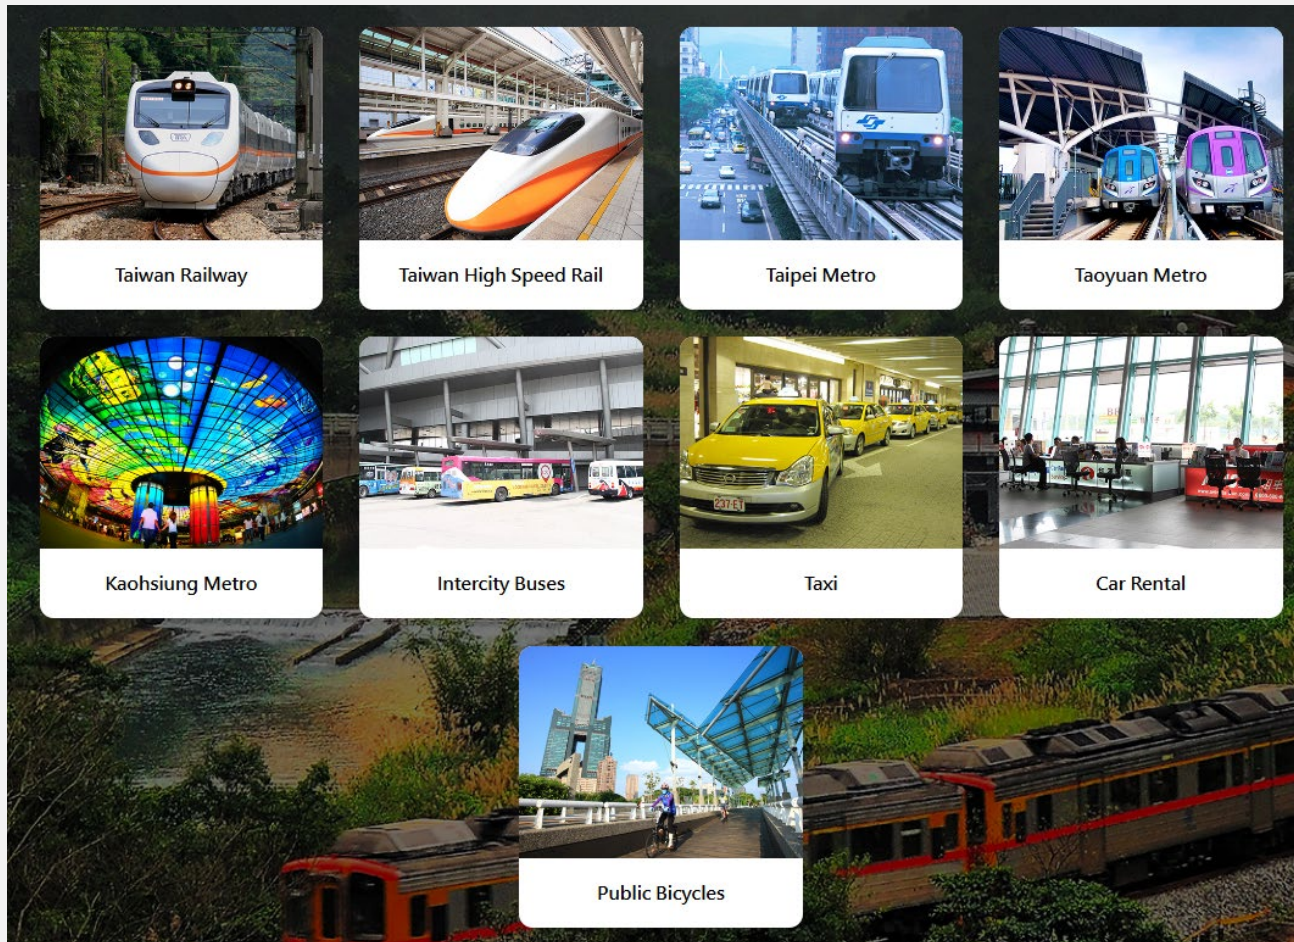

Type B

Hotels in Taiwan may provide different types of power sockets. We recommend bringing a universal travel adapter to ensure you can charge your electronic devices conveniently.

Weather Forecast and Clothing Recommendations (1/2)

<https://www.cwa.gov.tw/V8/E/W/County/County.html?CID=10004>

During the period from March 9 to March 20, 2026, Hsinchu City is expected to experience a transition from cooler to warmer temperatures, with varying weather conditions.

Clothing Recommendations:

Layered Clothing: Given the temperature fluctuations, especially between day and night, it's advisable to wear layers. Start with a base layer, add a lightweight sweater or jacket, and adjust as needed throughout the day.

Light Fabrics: As temperatures rise, breathable fabrics like cotton or linen will help keep you comfortable during warmer days.

Comfortable Footwear: If you plan to explore the city, opt for comfortable walking shoes suitable for various terrains.

Weather Forecast and Clothing Recommendations (2/2)

Rain Gear:

Umbrella: Given the forecasted rain might occur during March 9 to 20, carrying a compact umbrella is recommended to stay dry during unexpected showers.

Waterproof Footwear: Consider bringing waterproof shoes or sandals to navigate wet conditions comfortably.

NOTE: However, please note that the course session will take place in a laboratory (also in Clean Room). Sandals are not allowed!! Closed-toe shoes must be worn.

- Due to the hands-on course schedule, students will need to enter the clean room on March 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 16.
For safety reasons, please wear closed-toe shoes. Sandals are not allowed.
